

Window of Heaven

When it's time for me to pass away,
Jesus will guide me all the way.
So don't you cry anymore tears,
because I won't have any fears.

I won't be sick anymore,
because I'm with a God I adore.
I'll never be lonely or sad,
and I will never feel so bad.

God will wrap his arms around me,
and give me his love eternally.
Heaven is the best place to be, and it is a place for all to see.

I will finally be at peace,
and all of the hardships will finally cease.
I thank God for all he's given,
and for letting me go on "liven."

I want to kiss Jesus's feet,
than my life will be complete.
I want to swing way up high,
and go on roller coasters in the sky.

Carol & I can go on picnics together,
and never even worry about the weather.
I know it's hard for you to bare,
but I'm much happier up here.
